MOVE FOR NEW BRIDGE

Finance Committee of Manchester Decides to Recommend. the Ordinance.

SPECIAL SESSION OF COUNCIL

Death in Staunton of Mrs. Peaseley-Dr. Cridlin's Brother Dead-Other News.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch. No. 1102 Hull Street. After a considerable discussion the Fi-mance Committee decided last night to call a special joint session of the two brunches of the Council to receive its favorable report of an ordinance looking to the condemnation and purchase of the ancient Mayo's Bridge, and the ercetion in its stead of a new and up-to-date ering two lares typewritten pages. The committee declined to give it out for publication last night. The City Attorney was present and offered certain sug-estions to desirable changes in the text of the paper, but the force of these suggestions the committee failed to see. At all events, the paper in its original form was adopted for recommendation to the Council. The call for a special meeting will be issued at the joint session of the two bodies to be held tonight.

sion of the two bodies to be held fo-night.

The bridge ordinance contemplates the lessuance of $25,060 lives and a half per cent, bonds, guaranteed by the cities of Manchester and Richmond, acting jointly, it is contemplated to condemn and pur-chase the present Mayo's Bridge and de-moilsh it. In its place will be built a new bridge that will be free to the public.
